

THE CENTRAL POWERS

IN WW1

Ein Geist, ein Arm, ein Wille!

The ottoman empire

In WW1

FACTS ON THE OTTOMAN EMPIRE

Ottoman Empire, empire created by Turkish tribes in Anatolia(Asia Minor) (Asia Minor is most asian parts of modern Turkey) that grew to be one of the most powerful states in the world during the 15th and 16th centuries.

The Ottoman period spanned more than 600 years and came to an end only in 1922, when it was replaced by the Turkish republic.

The Ottoman Empire entered the war by carrying out a surprise attack on Russia's Black Sea coast on 29 October 1914, with Russia responding by declaring war on 5 November 1914.

the Ottoman Empire started military action after three months of formal neutrality, but it had signed a secret alliance with the Central Powers in August 1914

The Ottoman Empire's defeat in the war in 1918 was crucial in the eventual dissolution of the empire in 1921.

Germany had 52% percent of deaths for the central powers.

1913

GERMANY

IN WW1

Facts on germany

A world map with Germany highlighted in green. The map is centered on Europe, and Germany is clearly visible in the center. The rest of the world is shown in a light gray color.

Germany began participation in the conflict after the declaration of war against Serbia by its ally, Austria Hungary.

It soon became noticeable that Germany could not last a war longer than a few months.

The German army opened the war on the western front (France and Belgium).

1916 had 2 great battles on the western front at Verdun and the Somme.

At the Somme there were over 400,000 German casualties and 600,000 allies casualties.

The battle at Verdun had 143,000 German casualties and the allies had 162,440 casualties.

AUSTRO HUNGARIA

IN WW1

A grayscale map of Europe and the Mediterranean region. The Austro-Hungarian Empire, which included Austria and Hungary, is highlighted in a solid green color. The rest of the map is in shades of gray.

Facts on Austria Hungary

In 1914 the austro hungarian army came up to its greatest challenge in history WW1.

Between 1914 and 1918 a total of 9 million people served the austro hungarian army.

One million died during the course of the war that's a fraction of 28 people in 1000 died.

Austria Hungary had 35% of deaths for the central powers.

BULGARIA

IN WW1

FACTS ON BULGARIA

The Bulgarian empire entered the war on the central powers on the 14th of October 1915

In September 1918 the allies based in Greece broke through the Macedonian front of Bulgaria

The Central Powers and the Allies had to bid to get Bulgaria on their side and the central powers offered them Greece, Serbia, and Romania if they were to join the Central Powers

By the Autumn of 1918 900,000 men had joined the army that's around 40% of the male population

The Allies

IN WW1

The Allies — "Onward to Victory"

FRANCE

IN WW1

Facts on France

A wide-angle photograph of a vast cemetery. The foreground and middle ground are filled with rows of white, Latin cross-shaped gravestones. The crosses are arranged in neat, parallel lines that recede into the distance. The ground is green grass, and some small red flowers are visible near the base of some crosses. In the background, there is a line of dark green trees under a bright blue sky with scattered white clouds. The overall scene is peaceful and solemn.

Germany marched through neutral Belgium as part of the Schlieffen plan to take France

The Battle of Verdun was the longest of WW1 lasting from February 21 1916 to December 18 the same year

The first German attack on Verdun was with one million soldiers and 200,000 French soldiers

Germany declared war on France August 3rd 1914

Russia

In ww1

facts on Russia

Russia entered WW1 on August 1, 1914

Russia entered the war because Germany declared war on Russia

Russian recruit poster from WW1

Reads the world is on fire

Russia depended deeply on their alliance with France

A two front war against Germany was winnable but not on their own

U.S.A

IN WW1

FACTS ON THE U.S.A

The United States declared war on Germany on April 6, 1917 more than 2 years after WW1 started.

The U.S suffered around 110,000 deaths and around 45,000 who died of the 1918 Spanish influenza (flu) 30,000 before they even reached france

WALTER DUNN/EDMUND FLAEG

I WANT YOU FOR U.S. ARMY

NEAREST RECRUITING STATION

The image features a large Union Jack flag as a background. In the center of the flag is the Royal Coat of Arms, which includes a crown at the top and a shield supported by two figures, all surrounded by a sunburst. Overlaid on the center of the flag is the text "BRITAIN" in a large, bold, black, sans-serif font.

BRITAIN

IN WW1

FOR THE BRITISH NAVY

Facts on Britain

Civilian deaths rose because of food shortages and the spanish influenza

(flu) which hit the country in 1918.

According to local papers the Great War (WW1) was stupid, tragic and futile.

David Lloyd George was the Prime Minister of Britain at the end of the war

Britain joined the war because Britain and Belgium had a treaty to support each other but then Germany invaded Belgium

...ive with him a number of interesting naval pictures with which to Illustrate his Lecture.

ALL ARE INVITED

SEATS FREE

GOD SAVE THE KING

Ireland

IN WW1

Facts on Ireland

DO YOU ANSWER THE CALL?

Altogether around 210,000 Irish men served in the British Army for WW1

Since there was no conscription (being forced to go to war) 140,000 of them

Joined by volunteering and about 35,000 of them died in the war

Ireland joined the war because they were promised Home Rule (independence)

by Britain

NOW IS THE TIME.

AND THE PLACE IS THE NEAREST RECRUITING OFFICE

Main facts on WW1

-
- Germany had 53% of the central powers deaths
 - Nearly 65 million men from 30 different countries participated in WW1
 - The tanks in WW1 for Britain were categorized into male and female the males had cannons when the females had machine guns
 - Little Willie was the first prototype tank and could travel 3 km per hour
 - In WW1 dogs were used as messengers to the front lines with capsules attached to their bodies
 - 9/10 people that fought in WW1 survived the war