

Guam

By Harry Rubotham

Where is Guam ???

- Guam, island and unincorporated territory of the United States in the North Pacific Ocean, the largest, most populous, and southernmost of the Mariana Islands. It lies about 5,800 miles (9,300 km) west of San Francisco and 1,600 miles (2,600 km) east of Manila.

Capital, Population, Languages and Industries

- The capital of Guam is Hagåtña.
- The population in Guam is 163,000 people.
- The nickname for the island is The Island of Warriors.
- Guam has a ten hour time difference to Ireland.
- The postal abbreviation for Guam is GU
- Major industries in Guam are national defense, tourism, construction and food processing.
- The languages spoken in Guam are English, Chamorro and a little Japanese.

Sport and Pastimes

- People that live in Guam like to play baseball, rugby, basketball and football. { soccer }

Some famous sports players in guam are

Benjie Pangelinan { baseball and football }

Danny Cepeda { football and basketball }

Joe “baby” Taimanglo { boxing/MMA }

Jesse Perez { volleyball and basketball }

Weather in Guam

The weather in Guam is usually hot and very dry

I would describe the weather in Guam like Australia weather or Hawaii because Guam is a very tropical place.

Foods in Guam

Kelaguen is the national dish of Guam. This dish can contain different seafood and meat. It must contain a thick sauce that is made of lemon juice, grated coconut and chili peppers. During the cooking process, different seafoods can be added to the sauce.

Famous People

Baby Joe Taimanglo is a famous MMA fighter from Guam and was born on June 27th 1984 and has been a professional competitor since 2004. He is the current Pacific Xtreme Combat featherweight champion.

Transport in Guam

In Guam they use the same transport as us, cars, vans, trucks, trains and aeroplanes.

In Guam a lot more people use the bus instead of cars, this is because it is very cheap method of transport and also environmentally friendly.

Traditional dress

Women wore leaf and bark around the waist and, at times, used turtle shells styled into an apron-like clothing piece.

Men wore an outfit of a loose button-down and bleached cotton trousers that ranged in length depending on the formality of the situation.

The end thank you

